SHAREHOLDER

Shawn Gunnarson is a member of the firm's Appellate, Litigation, and First Amendment and Religious Organizations sections. Before joining Kirton McConkie, he spent over a decade in Washington, DC. There, he served as senior counsel to U.S. Senator Robert F. Bennett, worked as an associate for the Washington office of White & Case, and litigated for the Washington Legal Foundation.

His practice focuses on critical motions and appeals in civil cases before the U.S. Supreme Court and other courts. He has extensive U.S. Supreme Court experience, having filed briefs or petitions in 65 cases before that Court, including six cases during the October 2018 term alone. For instance, he has obtained a grant of certiorari, remand, and vacatur by the Supreme Court for his client in a Takings Clause case. He has also filed briefs in all but two U.S. Courts of Appeals.

He was recently appointed to a second four-year term as a member of the Utah Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Rules of Appellate Procedure. He is a member of the Utah State Bar and the DC Bar.
