

EMILY HAWS WRIGHT

ehaws@kmclaw.com | 801.328.3600

ASSOCIATE

Emily Haws Wright is a member of the firm's First Amendment & Religious Organizations and Litigation practice groups. Her practice is centered in appellate work, and is focused on a broad range of constitutional and civil rights issues. Ms. Haws Wright's practice is also focused on crisis management, with a special emphasis in child protection and abuse prevention and response.

EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Kirton McConkie, Ms. Haws was an associate at Latham & Watkins in California where her practice focused on complex environmental litigation, representing clients in connection with toxic tort, water quality, hazardous waste, and other environmental and land use laws in California state and federal courts.

Clerkship, United States District Court, District of Nevada, The Honorable Kent J. Dawson

EDUCATION

University of Nevada Las Vegas, William S. Boyd School of Law, JD, cum laude

Editor-in-Chief, Nevada Law Journal (law review), 2016-17

Founding Editor, Nevada Law Journal Forum 2016-17

William S. Boyd Outstanding Graduate Award, 2017

Judge Lloyd D. George Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition, First Place and Best Oral Advocate, 2017

Kaufman Securities Moot Court Competition, Second Place, 2016

Legal Writing and Property teaching assistant

University of Utah, BA, Latin American Studies, 2013

Collegiate Club Water Polo, 2nd Team All American & Southwest Conference MVP

Semester Abroad, Universidad de Alcalá de Henares, Madrid, Spain, 2011

PRACTICE AREAS

LITIGATION
INTERNATIONAL

LANGUAGES

SPANISH

ADMISSIONS & AFFILIATIONS

Bar Admissions: California, 2017