

JACKIE PILLING

jpilling@kmclaw.com | 801.323.5926

ASSOCIATE

Jackie Pilling is a member of the firm's Litigation section. Her practice is focused on complex commercial and general civil matters. She represents and advises clients in all aspects of litigation, litigation-related risks, and alternative methods of dispute resolution. Ms. Pilling has experience in a variety of areas including construction disputes, contract enforcement, real estate and title insurance litigation, business torts, and trademark litigation.

EXPERIENCE

Assisted in successful defense of design professionals in $8 million construction defect suit.

Represented marketing executives in successful defense of claims asserted under non-compete agreement.

Obtained dismissal of suit for out-of-state supplier of medical devices.

Advised on litigation and risk-management aspects of $500 million shareholder sale of stock in gas station enterprise.

Kirton and McConkie, Summer Associate, 2006-2007

United States Attorney's Office, District of Utah, Intern, 2006

Iron County Attorney's Office, Intern, 2004

HONORS & AWARDS

Mountain States Super Lawyers: Rising Star in Intellectual Property (2015), General Litigation (2016-2018)

EDUCATION

Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School, JD, cum laude, 2008

Teaching Assistant, Rex E. Lee Advocacy Program, 2006-2008

Academic Scholarship Recipient,
2006-2008

Associate Editor: BYU Law Review, 2007

High Grade in Legal Writing, Fall 2005 Utah, 2008

Southern Utah University, BS, summa cum laude, 2005

ADMISSIONS & AFFILIATIONS

Bar Admissions: Utah, 2008

Other Admissions: United States District Court for the District of Utah, 2008

Affiliations: Women Lawyers of Utah, J. Reuben Clark Law Society

PRACTICE AREAS

LITIGATION

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

LITIGATION, TRIALS &

APPEALS