

Daniel H. Purdie

Shareholder

dpurdie@kmclaw.com

801.328.3600

Practice Areas

Corporate
Contracts
Cybersecurity and Data Privacy
International
Licensing

Daniel Purdie is a member of the firm's Corporate and International sections. His practice focuses on transactional franchising, licensing and distribution matters. He assists clients in a broad range of industries, including food, fitness, hair care, real estate, cleaning and educational concepts. Mr. Purdie also frequently advises clients with respect to contract drafting and negotiation, business formation, and general corporate matters.

Experience

- Drafting franchise disclosure documents and franchise agreements
- Compliance with federal and state franchise registration and disclosure laws
- Structuring franchise offerings including single unit and area development programs
- Advising regarding sweepstakes and contests, including drafting official rules
- Enforcing franchise system standards and protecting intellectual property
- Franchise default and termination
- Responses to data breach incidents
- Drafting and negotiating commercial contracts
- Managing due diligence investigations for mergers and acquisitions
- Ensuring domestic and international regulatory compliance for online educational program

Prior to joining Kirton McConkie, Mr. Purdie was an associate for a law firm in Houston, Texas, in its litigation practice group focusing on issues related to the oil and gas industry.

Education

The University of Texas at Austin School of Law, JD, 2011
University of Utah, BS, Finance, magna cum laude, 2006

Admissions & Affiliations

Bar Admissions: Texas
Utah

Affiliations: Franchise Section, Utah State Bar
- Chair, 2016-2017
Forum on Franchising, American Bar Association