

Gaby Anguiano

Associate

ganguiano@kmclaw.com

801.328.3600

Practice Areas

International

Languages

Spanish

Gaby Anguiano is a member of the firm's International section. She graduated from the S.J. Quinney College of Law at the University of Utah. Her practice focuses on regulatory compliance, non-profit activities overseas, and data privacy.

Experience

- Kirton McConkie 1L and 2L summer associate
- Selected as a Utah Center for Legal Inclusion (UCLI) fellow (the first chosen from the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law)

Education

University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, JD, with highest honors, 2025

- Order of the Coif
- Legal Writing Teaching Assistant for Professor Leslie Culver
- Research Assistant for Professor Leslie Culver
- Minority Law Caucus
- Women's Law Caucus
- Pro-Bono Initiative

Brigham Young University, BS, Sociology, summa cum laude, 2021

- Scholarship Recipient, Family, Home, and Social Sciences Department
 - Diversity, Collaboration, and Inclusion Research Academy Fellow
- Columbia Basin College, Associate of Arts and Sciences Degree, with honors, 2019
- Dean's Honor Roll, 2018-2019

Admissions & Affiliations

Bar Admissions: Utah, 2025

Honors & Awards

- CALI Awards: Legal Writing, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Administrative Law
- Outstanding Achievement Award: Forensic Evidence (Spring 2025, Professor Teneille Brown)
- 2024 Nominee for the Stephen Pierre Traynor Legal Writing Award (Paper Title: "Show Me a New Technology, and I'll Show You a New Way to Oppress: Title VII and Sexual Harassment in the Remote Workplace")