Practice Areas

First Amendment and Religious Organizations

Christopher Willis works in the First Amendment and Religious Organizations section, helping his clients navigate important issues within their organizations and with congregants. Previously, he spent over three-and-a-half years as a prosecutor, working first for the Salt Lake City Prosecutor's Office prosecuting cases ranging from traffic infractions to DUI and domestic violence offenses. During his time with Salt Lake City, he assisted in training newly hired attorneys and developed a reputation on both sides of the courtroom for being an approachable public servant. Christopher then briefly transferred to the State of Utah as an assistant attorney general prosecuting felony matters.
